EXPERIENCE (CONTINUE)

LEADER | PRODUCT DESIGNER | PKH APPLICATION | 2020 - 2021

In order to enhance my skills in UX/UI, I chose to join a company that focuses on software and application development. I was assigned the role of Head of Design, which involved overseeing the company's media publications and working closely with the Product and Engineering Departments to create medical applications.

DESIGN MANAGER | UPLIFT | 2021 - 2023

After many years of developing my skills and expertise, I realized that I needed to enhance my business acumen in order to continue growing. That's when I found Uplift, a company that offers training courses and business consulting services to Vietnamese businesses.

As a manager in the design department, I not only oversee the department but also participate in courses and consulting sessions with senior leaders and experienced trainers.
